A casualty resulting from the negro soldiers' raid Monday night was a flesh wound on the hand which was received by Paulino Preciado, who was standing inside Tillman's saloon at the time it was fired on. The bullet inflicting the wound penetrated the clothing of Preciado near the waist and broke a pair of glasses in one of his pockets. It was a close call for the editor of El Porvenir.

A sad result of Monday night's tragedy which THE HERALD omitted to report yesterday was the amputation of the wounded right arm of Lieut. of Police Joe Dominguez, which was shattered by a shot from the negro soldiers. The surgeons in attendance concluded that amputation was necessary to save Mr. Dominguez, life, and the operation was performed yesterday. The patient is reported as doing as well as could be expected and it is hoped may soon recover. It is needless to state that universal regret is felt by our people at the misfortune of this brave officer. Joe Dominguez has been on the police force for many years and is generally admired as one of the most courageous peace officers ever serving this city. His numerous friends sympathize with him very deeply. Fortunately for Mr. Dominguez, however, he is naturally left handed, and so will not feel his loss quite so much as he would otherwise have done.

The tourist car Rice, with twenty-five prospectors, came in last evening to give its passengers a glimpse of the lower Rio Grande country. Freeman, Kansas City; S. S. Abney, Wm. Thorp, F. M. McRoberts, G. H. Smith, Levi Smith, F. S. Smith, E. Smith, St. T. Wilson, W. D. Scarborough, Missouri; W. C. Durham, R. H. Galloway, Kansas; C. E. COMPLIMENT TO BROWNSVILLE GIRL.

Elegant Entertainment In Honor of Miss Anita Cocke By Friends at Cuero.

The Cuero Record of the 12th. instant publishes the following report of an entertainment tendered by friends at Cuero in compliment to one of Brownsville's fairest daughters:

Mrs. Lelia Seeligson complimented the Euchre club of Cuero on Friday afternoon when she presented Miss Anita Cocke of Brownsville as the honoree, a very pretty and accomplished young lady, whose gentle manner and honest lack of ostentation have endeared her to many friends throughout our section. Miss Cocke is descended from one of the most distinguished families in this part of the state and is enjoying her visit as her friends are enjoying her. It was a lovely evening for such an entertainment in which beauty, grace and loveliness vied. The decorations were butterflies and indeed were a work of art and beauty lavishly displayed and much admired. The tally cards of most unique invention, a butterfly whose natural brilliancy was added to as the golden dots grew for the winning player. After a series of games in which the greater part of the assemblage engaged, refreshments of cream and cake were served on butterflies by the joint hostesses, Mrs. J. C. Howerton and Mrs. L. Seeligson. After the delicious treat Mrs. Seeligson fairly took the breath away when she produced her beautiful prizes and awarded them thus: to the honoree, Miss Cocke, an exquisite centerpiece embroidered in colored butterflies, Mrs. J. C. Howerton an elaborate "club bow" and butterfly key rack as a prize, Mrs. J. C. Woodworth, lone hand, large bow and butterfly pin, Mrs. W. C. Booton taking the consolation, a butterfly aigrette for the hair. The guests came in for their share of the trophies, Miss Viva Crain being fortunate enough to capture two, the lone hand and ace, which she generously cut for with the defeated guest, Miss Fanny Graves being lucky in the cut. Those present were the card clubs of the city and the following guests: Mesdames R. A. Pleasants, Galveston; Sam Jones, Gonzalez; Northup, San Antonio; A. L. Cash, Nacogdoches; Terry, Austin; Jas. Bell, Uvalde; Kleas, W. K. Breeden, city, Misses Ella White, Nellie Thompson, Sallie Bell, Fanny Graves, Hilda Reifert, Viva and Mary Crain, Winnie Staerker, Annie Breeden.

FUNERAL OF FRANK NATUS

Unfortunate Victim of Negro Marauders Laid to Rest—His Blood Cries for Vengeance.

The funeral of Frank Natus, the unfortunate victim of the negro marauders, took place yesterday afternoon at five o'clock. A very large gathering was present and followed the body to the cemetery. The intensest sympathy being felt by all for the tragic and untimely ending of this young man, who was innocent of any offense whatever, who unarmed and utterly defenseless was sacrificed to the lust for blood of the fiends who terrorized Brownsville on Monday night. As the body was lowered to its last resting place, every person of the large assemblage witnessing it felt stirred with indignant resentment against his cruel murderers.

The blood of this innocent boy cries aloud for vengeance, and it should be the vow of every citizen of this outraged town to leave no stone unturned to bring his murderers to justice.
